Opening Narration: U.S. Embassy Nigeria EducationUSA Advising Centers are celebrating the 2014 International Education Week (IEW) from November 17th to 21st. This year's theme is "International Education is for Everyone." EducationUSA Advisor, Jennifer Onyukwu, speaks on EducationUSA Advising Center Abuja's scheduled activities.

Jennifer Onyukwu: International Education Week (IEW) is co-led by the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education to promote the critical importance of international education and exchange opportunities and their roles in supporting U.S. foreign policy objectives.

This year marks the 15th anniversary of International Education Week with theme "International Education is for Everyone."

There are series of activities scheduled to mark this year's celebration, including university and high school visits, film shows and discussions amongst others. There are two major highlights to celebrate IEW this year.

November 19, EducationUSA Abuja will join other viewers around the globe to participate in the 3rd annual EducationUSA International Students Day virtual college fair, organized in partnership with CollegeWeekLive.

On Thursday, November 20, EducationUSA and IIP will host an EducationUSA Interactive session on U.S. university classroom culture. Students can access the session directly from any computer connected to the internet and can interact with the panelists via chat and have their questions answered live on air.

Narrator: How can someone who is interested in this event participate?

Jennifer Onyukwu: Interested participants should sign up at www.CollegeWeekLive.com/EducationUSA. It is free.

Additionally, the EducationUSA Advising Center in Abuja will be hosting other events to celebrate this year's IEW.

Narrator: Are these events free as well?

Jennifer Onyukwu: Yes, these are free events. To participate in any of the open events, please visit and like our Facebook page www.facebook.com/educationusa.abuja or follow us on twitter@EdUSA.Abuja. EducationUSA provides accurate, comprehensive and current information on accredited institutions of higher learning in the U.S.

Narrator: Where can someone find more information about the International Education Week and U.S. Embassy Abuja's EducationUSA Advising Center activities?

Jennifer Onyukwu: For more information on our services, visit, educationusa.state.gov or nigeria.usembassy.gov. You can also call 09461-4251, 461-4298, 461-4335 or 461-4241.

Narrator: Thank you Jennifer, we all look forward to an exciting International Education Week.

Jennifer Onyukwu: Thank you so much.
